AMERICAN RAIL-ROAD JOURNAL.

The subscriber is now publishing a weekly, paper, called the American Rail Road Journal. A principal object is offering the proposed work to the Public, is to diffuse a more general knowledge of this important mode of internal communication, which, at this time, appears to engage the attention of almost every section of our country.

The American Rail Road Journal is printed on a sheet of largest size, (mammoth) and put up in a convenient form for binding, each number containing sixteen large octavo pages of three columns each. The selections, upon the subject of railroads and other works of internal improvement, will be from the best authors, both of Europe and America, and will be occasionally illustrated by engravings. A part of this Journal will be devoted to the subject of internal improvement—giving a history of the first introduction of railroads into England and their improvements to the present day. It will also contain notices of different sections of the country, upon the subject of railroads. The remaining part of the paper will contain the LITERARY, MISCELLANEOUS AND NEWS matter of the NEW YORK AMERICAN, as prepared for that paper, omitting all political subjects, except such as are of general concern.

The terms of the American Railroad Journal are THREE dollars per annum, payable in advance; and will not be sent without. Any person who will obtain eight subscribers and remit the amount, shall have a copy gratis; and to companies of ten subscribers, who associate and remit twenty-five dollars, it will be sent for $2.50 each per annum. The Journal will be sent for any length of time desired, if paid in advance. It will be published on Saturdays.

Letters upon the subject of the American Railroad Journal may be addressed, free of postage, to the publisher and part proprietor, D. K. MINOR, No. 35 Wall-street, New-York.

NEW LAW BOOKS.

P. H. NICKLIN & T. JOHNSON, Law Booksellers, No. 175, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, have lately published the following Law Books, viz.—

English Common Law Reports, vol. 19, containing Bingsham's C. P. Reports, vol. 6, and Carrington and Payne's N. P. Reports, vol. 4.

English Ecclesiastical Reports, vols. 1 and 2, containing Phillimore's Reports, 3 vols. and Addams's Reports, 3 vols.

"We do not know, indeed, that we have gone through any volume of English Adjudged Cases, which is more abundant in useful illustration of the principles of the law administered here, than that to which we invite attention."

—U. S. Law Int. and Rev. Dec. No. 1831.

Russell on Crimes, 2d American from the 2d London edition, with very considerable additions, including an Original Chapter upon Criminal Evidence. American Notes, and References to the Present Time, by D. Davis, and Theron Metcalf, Esqrs. 2 large vols. royal 8vo.

In Press. English Common Law Reports, vol. 20, containing 7th Bingham, and 1st Barnewall and Adolphus. English Ecclesiastical Reports, vol. 3. Anthon's Analysis of Blackstone; a new edition revised by the author, who has prefixed a valuable chapter upon the Study of the Law.

Also, Wentworth's Office and Duty of Executors; with Curson's Supplement, and Serjeant Wilson's Notes. Printed from the Fourteenth London Edition. Edited by Henry Jeramy, of the Middle Temple; with references by Edward D. Ingraham.

The Advertisers have for sale all new law books as soon as published; and their attention being confined exclusively to that branch, they are careful always to maintain a full and complete assortment of law books, which will be sold cheap, and warranted perfect. Orders from abroad will be as promptly and cheaply executed, as though the purchaser were on the spot.

Dec. 24th, 1831.

A New Edition of COKE UPON LITTLETON.

Is preparing for the press; to be printed from the nineteenth London edition, which contains all the improvements of the former editions, and has additional notes by Charles Butler, Esq. one of the King's Counsel.

The subscribers have received two copies of this valuable book, and will put it to press as soon as it can be prepared by an able American Editor.

The price to subscribers will be nine dollars in law sheep, and ten dollars in law calf.

Those gentlemen who desire to possess this work, can see the London copy at our Law Bookstore, No. 175 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
